

I am adamantly opposed to any broadening of media ownership rules. I am very concerned when my phone calls can not get through to your office when undoubtedly the big companies and big money have a direct line. This tells me that you are not there for the people but for money. If you vote to give away the peoples rights, then you are no better than the Soviets or the Nazis.